

ACADEMIC REGISTRATION FORM

Valdivia, Chile

Along with your advisor, review the courses listed in your program brochure, complete this form and return to Central Washington University. Students typically take four courses in addition to the Cross Cultural Communication course. After the program begins, it is possible to make changes to your registration during the first ten (10) days of the program. Any changes must be submitted in writing to the site director and your study abroad advisor in the United States. All students will take a language proficiency test during orientation to confirm your placement level, for Spanish language courses.
