

BIOLOGY IN MEXICO PROGRAM, Winter Quarter 2008
Tentative Itinerary

Dates	Activities	Location
Jan 3 (Thurs)	Fly from Seattle to Puerto Vallarta
Jan 3	Orientation to Mexico; Prepare for visit to field station	Puerto Vallarta – overnight stay
Jan 4 (Fri)	Take bus from Puerto Vallarta to Chamela
Jan 4-8	Introduction to field station and natural history of tropical dry forest	Estación de Biología Chamela, Chamela, Jalisco, Mexico
Jan 8 (Tues)	Take bus from Chamela to Morelia
Jan 9 - Feb 22	Live with host families Take courses and field trips: - Intensive Spanish - Conservation biology (BIOL 466) - Regional Natural History: Mexican Dry Forests (BIOL 377) - Prepare proposals for research projects	Universidad Latina de América, Morelia, Michoacan, Mexico
Feb 22 (Fri)	Take charter bus from Morelia to Chamela (one night overnight?)
Feb 23 - March 7	Finish biology courses Conduct research projects & field trips to local areas of biological significance	Estación de Biología Chamela
Mar 7 (Fri)	Take local bus from Chamela to Puerto Vallarta
March 7	Mexico Program ends; students fly home directly, or arrange own spring break in Mexico	Puerto Vallarta
Spring Quarter	Preparation for presentation at CWU SOURCE	Ellensburg